

QUERY 8

Show the films that Tom Hanks has act and have won more than 3 Oscars.

```
1 • use movie_db;
```

```
2
```

```
1 • use movie_db;
2 • SELECT
3     title
4     FROM
5     movies
6
```

```
1 • use movie_db;
2 • SELECT
3     title
4     FROM
5     movies
6     WHERE
7     oscars > 3
8
```

```
1 • use movie_db;
2 • SELECT
3     title
4     FROM
5     movies
6     WHERE
7     oscars > 3
8     AND
9     movie_id IN(
10    SELECT
11    movie_id
12    FROM
13    stars
14    INNER JOIN
15    movie_stars
16    ON movie_stars.star_id = stars.star_id
17 ✖
```

```
1 • use movie_db;
2 • SELECT
3     title
4     FROM
5     movies
6     WHERE
7     oscars > 3
8     AND
9     movie_id IN(
10    SELECT
11    movie_id
12    FROM
13    stars
14    INNER JOIN
15    movie_stars
16    ON movie_stars.star_id = stars.star_id
17    WHERE
18    star_name = "Tom Hanks");
19
```

```
1 • use movie_db;
2 • SELECT
3     title
4     FROM
5     movies
6     WHERE
7     oscars > 3
8     AND
9     movie_id IN(
10    SELECT
11    movie_id
12    FROM
13    stars
14    INNER JOIN
15    movie_stars
16    ON movie_stars.star_id = stars.star_id
17    WHERE
18    star_name = "Tom Hanks");
19
```

<

>

Result Grid

 Filter Rows:

Export:

Wrap Cell Content:

 Result Grid

	title
▶	Forrest Gump

movies 1 x

 Read Only

First we choose the database we will work on.

Then we choose the movie name from the movies table because it asks us for the movie name in the query.

Then we first apply the Oscars filter and move on to the merge part.

Then we combine the stars and movie stars and then the movies table.

Then we apply the movie star filter and searching for Tom Hanks.

Finally we get the results.